Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and in one daily and one weekly newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. When the proposed Private Bill is of a local nature, the notice shall be furthermore published in some newspaper in the electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper therein, then in the nearest electoral district in which a newspaper is published. Such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of six weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall, in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. 78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

MINIMUM WAGE BOARD.

ORDER GOVERNING FRUIT AND VEGETABLE INDUSTRY.

WHEREAS on the twenty-eighth day of February, 1920, an obligatory Order was issued by the Board governing the fruit and vegetable industry under the provisions of the "Minimum Wage Act," whereby a minimum wage was fixed in respect of the said industry:

And whereas, upon petition under section 9 of the said Act presented to the Board by the employers in the said industry to reopen the question regarding the minimum wage therein, a Conference was duly called and recommendations made, which have been reviewed and approved by the Board, in consequence whereof it is hereby ordered that the following order shall be obligatory on all persons carrying on or engaged in the fruit and vegetable industry, namely:—

ORDER OF THE BOARD.

Interpretation.

1. That where used in this Order the following expressions shall have the following meanings respectively:—

(a.) "Fruit and vegetable industry," includes the work of females engaged in canning, preserving, drying, packing, or otherwise adapting for sale or use any kind of fruit or vegetable:

(b.) "Experienced female employee" means a female employee who has worked in the fruit and vegetable industry for a period of three (3) months:

(c.) "Inexperienced female employee" means a female employee who has worked in the fruit and vegetable industry for a period of less than three months:

(d.) "Emergency period" means a period of ninety (90) days in any twelve (12) months during which the hours of labour for female employees may be extended.

Experienced Female Employees Eighteen Years of Age or over.

2. That, subject to the other provisions of this Order, the minimum wage for every experienced female employee in the fruit and vegetable industry who is of the age of eighteen years or over that age (except women to whom a special licence is issued under section 10 of the said Act), on a time-rate basis, shall be the sum of fourteen dollars ($14) for a week of forty-eight (48) hours.

3. Where payment of wages is made on a piece-rate basis instead of a time-rate basis in the preparation of any product, the minimum piece rates shall be such as will produce to an experienced female employee who is of the age of eighteen years or over that age (except women to whom a special licence is issued under section 10 of the said Act) the sum of fourteen dollars ($14) for a week of forty-eight (48) hours.

4. In an emergency period the hours of labour for an employee may be extended to ten (10) hours of labour in any one day, or up to sixty (60) hours of labour in any one week. The minimum wage for an experienced female employee who is of the age of eighteen years or over that age during the time of labour in any day in excess of eight (8) hours and up to and including ten (10) hours a day shall be such as will produce a wage of thirty cents (30c.) an hour for each hour in excess of eight (8) hours:

Provided, moreover, that during such emergency period the minimum wage, whether on a time-rate basis or a piece-rate basis, for an experienced female employee who is of the age of eighteen years or over that age during the time of labour in any day in excess of ten (10) hours shall be such as will produce a wage for forty-five cents (45c.) an hour for each hour in excess of ten (10) hours:

5. That if the Board finds that unusual conditions necessitate a longer period than the emergency period aforementioned, it may, in its discretion, extend such emergency period.

Inexperienced Female Employees Eighteen Years of Age or over.

6. That, subject to the other provisions of this Order, the minimum wages for every inexperienced female employee in the fruit and vegetable industry on a time-rate basis for a week of forty-eight (48) hours shall be as follows:—

$10 a week during the first month's employment in such industry.

$11 a week during the second month's employment in such industry.

$12 a week during the third month's employment in such industry.

7. Where payment of wages is made on a piece-rate basis instead of a time-rate basis in the preparation of any product, the minimum piece rates shall be such as will produce to an inexperienced female employee who is of the age of eighteen years or over that age (except women to whom a special licence is issued under section 10 of the said Act) the wages specified in clause 6 hereof for a week of forty-eight hours:

Provided, moreover, that the rates for inexperienced female employees who are of the age of eighteen years or over that age for labour performed in excess of forty-eight (48) hours a week shall be computed in the same proportion to their wage as the rates specified for labour performed in excess of forty-eight (48) hours a week bear to the wages for experienced female employees who are of the age of eighteen years or over that age.

8. That if the Board finds that unusual conditions necessitate a longer period than the emergency period aforementioned, it may, in its discretion, extend such emergency period.

Experienced or Inexperienced Female Employees under Eighteen Years of Age.

Pursuant to section 11 of the said Act, the Board hereby orders that wages, hours, and periods of experience shall be the same for all female employees under eighteen years of age as for those of or above that age.

This Order shall come into force and be effective in sixty days from the date hereof, whereupon the Order first above mentioned shall be deemed to have become null and void.

Dated the fourth day of July, 1922.

J. D. McNIVEN, Chairman,
HELEN GREGORY MacGILL,
THOMAS MATHEWS,

Members of the Minimum Wage Board.

Section 13 of the Act provides that: "Every employer who employs an employee for whom a minimum wage has been fixed under this Act, at less than the minimum wage, or who employs an employee for whom maximum hours of labour have been fixed under this Act, for longer hours than the maximum so fixed, or who neglects or fails to comply with any order made under this Act as to conditions of labour and employment, or who violates any provision of this Act, shall be liable, upon summary conviction, to a penalty of not less than twenty-five dollars and not more than one hundred dollars."

Section 14 of the Act provides that: "If any employee is paid less than the minimum wage to which she is entitled under this Act, the said employee shall be entitled to recover from her employer, in a civil action, the balance between the amount of the minimum wage and the amount paid, together with costs and solicitors' fees, to be fixed by the Court."

Section 10 (4) of the Act provides that inexperienced female employees 18 years of age or over holding special licences from the Board permitting their employment at the rates set forth in section 6 of the above Order shall not exceed one-seventh of the whole number of female employees in the establishment.

Section 10 (5) of the Act provides that the aggregate number of female licence-holders and inexperienced female employees under 18 years of age shall not exceed 35 per cent. of the whole number of female employees in the establishment.
